

Wednesday, March 31, 2010

MEET THE NEW OWNER - Robin Shen is the new co-owner of the remodeled Shadow Park Inn & Suites, previously the Desert Inn, in Lancaster.

Shen and her husband, Alan, have given the hotel a fresh new look and hope people will return after the facility's nine-month closure.

KELLY LACEFIELD/Valley Press

- LANCASTER - Nearly nine months after it was shut down and fenced off by city officials, the landmark Sierra Highway hotel formerly known as the Desert Inn is open once again. For complete story, subscribe to the Antelope Valley Press.
LOS ANGELES - After a lapse of 23 years, Antelope Valley Hospital once again has been designated as a traumatic-injury care center.

Coming up

Healthy Style Thursday

Conquering Stress

TV star Lisa Edelstein explains: 'I've finally learned how to conquer stress.' Also, test your Diet IQ and find out if hypochondria is making you sick.

American Profile Friday

Easter Dinner

A round-up of recipes that will be perfect for a traditional Easter dinner including our menu for a delicious make-ahead meal.

Showcase Friday

Dragon age

'How to Train Your Dragon' is the latest animated film from DreamWorks.

